Bibliography

INTERVIEWS

While the following does not purport to be a comprehensive listing of all personal interviews, it does serve to indicate some of those men and women who gave most generously of their time and recollections. To them the author is indebted for much material on the organization of the Progressive Party and on other groups related to the 1948 campaign of Henry A. Wallace.

Mr. John Abt, Chief Counsel, Progressive Party.
Mr. C. B. Baldwin, Campaign Manager for Henry A. Wallace and Secretary, Progressive Party.
Miss Charlotte Carr, former Assistant to Mr. Sidney Hillman in CIO Political Action Committee.
Mr. Barney Conal, Chief Field Organizer, Progressive Party.
Miss Hannah Dorner, Director, Independent Citizens’ Committee of the Arts, Sciences and Professions.
Professor Thomas I. Emerson, Yale Law School, Chairman, Connecticut Wallace-for-President Committee and gubernatorial candidate of the People’s Party in Connecticut.
Albert J. Fitzgerald, President, United Electrical Workers, Co-chairman, Progressive Party, and Chairman, National Labor Committee for Wallace and Taylor.
Miss Helen Fuller, member of the Editorial Staff, New Republic.
Mrs. Elinor S. Gimbel, Vice-Chairman, Progressive Party and Chairman, Women-for-Wallace.
Mr. Morris Goldin, member of the Executive Board, American Labor Party.
Mr. J. Albert Keefer, Administrative Assistant to Senator Glen H. Taylor and member of the Platform Committee, Progressive Party.
Miss Geraldine Shandross, Executive Secretary, New York County Committee, American Labor Party.
