

Division of Student Affairs
at Syracuse University

Contact Us | search | SU HOME

Lillian and Emanuel Slutzker
Center for INTERNATIONAL SERVICES

Handbook Programs & Activities News About Us Forms & Resources

- Home
- Photo Gallery
- SCIS Archive
- Seminars
- Sitemap
- FAQ

- Living in Syracuse
- Life at SU
- Social Security
- Taxes
- Centro Bus System
- Driving in the U.S.
- Getting settled in Syracuse
- Off Campus Housing
- Orange Housing

Friday, October 31, 2008

SAAB Kick-or-Treat Event and International Night at the Soccer Game

The Student Athletes Across Borders (SAAB) is hosting the 'Stick-or-Treat' event at Tenny Ice Pavilion on Friday, Oct 31 at 6:30 p.m. SAAB will be in attendance during the Syracuse Ice Hockey team's game on Halloween night and will have a number of activities planned for children in attendance. There will be games set up on the concourse and a chance to win prizes for creative Halloween costumes. During the game, the student-organization will pass out Halloween candy to those in attendance.

Diwali Celebration: Ramleela

The Hindu Student Council will celebrate Diwali with a performance of Ramleela, a South Asia drama, at Hendricks Chapel on Saturday, Nov 8. Ramleela is a traditional depiction of the mythical lives of Lord Ram, Hanuman and the demon Ravana. Enjoy South Asian mythology, music and food at this celebration. Tickets are on sale for $7 at the Schine Box Office. Food is included in the price.

Date: Saturday, Nov 4

Time: 12:45 p.m.

Location: 341 Eggers Hall

Daylight-Saving Ends, Clock Change

Fall daylight-saving will occur on Sunday, November 2nd at 2 a.m. Clocks will be adjusted back one hour so that 2 a.m. becomes 1 a.m. and you gain an extra hour on that Sunday. You may find the phrase, "Spring" forward, and "Fall" back," helpful to remember how to adjust your clocks based on the season.

Election Night Viewing : Schine

Although international students can not vote to elect the American president, but on Election Day, November 4, you can watch history in the making. Student Centers and Programming Services (SCPS) will have the Schine Underground open for students to view election results. The purpose is to provide a safe, comfortable atmosphere for students to interact during one of the most important elections in U.S. history. Food will be provided.

Date: Tuesday, Nov 4

Time: 12:45 p.m.

Location: 341 Eggers Hall

Event Flyer and more information

Movie Contest Winner: Persepolis

The winner of the International Education Week movie contest is Ravichandran Krishnan. He nominated the 2007-released animated movie Persepolis, a young girl's coming of age story in the backdrop of the Iranian Revolution. The joint second place went to the movies Pan's Labyrinth and In the Mood for Love. Persepolis will be screened on Friday, Nov 21 at 5 p.m. during International Education Week's Mix-it-up event. Popcorn and drinks will be served.

Thanksgiving Dinner

As an international student, you are invited to attend a traditional Thanksgiving dinner hosted by Hendricks Chapel and the Slutzker Center for International Services. Check next week's edition of SCISNEWS for information regarding date, time, location and seating for this wonderful celebration.

Weekly Movie Roundup

Movies this week include the Egyptian love-triangle, a documentary on the tribulations of the Afro-Dominican community and a film about the life of Valerie Solanas, the woman who shot Andy Warhol.

I Shot Andy Warhol

Date: Sunday, Nov 2

Time: 2:00 p.m.

Location: Everson Museum of Art

For more information about the screening visit Syracuse Pulse

Congo Pa'Ti

Country: Dominican Republic

Date: Wednesday, Nov 5

Time: 7:00 p.m.

Location: 228A Schine Student center

For more information visit Moynihan Institute of Global Affairs

Enta Omry \(My Soulmate\)

Country: Egypt

Date: Thursday, Nov 6
Time: 5:15 p.m.
Location: 060 Eggers Hall
For more information visit Moynihan Institute of Global Affairs

Weekly Seminar Roundup

Panels with an international flavor this week include a student discussion group on the future of EU, a panel on transnational NGOs and a discussion of the humanitarian action in East Asia.

Seminars for the week focus on themes as diverse as the water conflict in South Asia and activism amongst the indigenous people of Chile to regulated terror and insecurity produced through simulation.

EU and CES presents: "The Future of the EU"

Date: Wednesday, Nov 5
Time: 12:45 p.m.
Location: 341 Eggers Hall
More information and contact

Panel Discussion on Power and Accountability
Within Transnational NGOs

Date: Tuesday, Nov 4
Time: 12:00 p.m.
Location: 341 Eggers Hall
More information and contact

Humanitarian Action in East Asia

Date: Tuesday, Nov 4
Time: 12:30 p.m.
Location: 225 Eggers Hall
More information and contact

Shared Waters, Divided Peoples: Water, Conflict & Socio-Ecological Transformations
in South Asia

with Farhana Sultana
Date: Wednesday, Nov 5
Time: 12:15 p.m.
Location: 400A Eggers Hall
More information and contact

Roots of Mapuche Activism
with John Stegeman

Date: Thursday, Nov 6
Time: 12:00 p.m.
Location: 341 Eggers Hall
More information

A Psychopolitics of Simulation: Producing Bioterrors with Jackie Orr

Date: Wednesday, Nov 5
Time: 4:00 p.m.
Location: 341 Eggers Hall
More information and contact