

Letter from the Editors

The Spring 2018 CHRONOS issue includes articles on a wide range of topics, from the "Reynolds Affair" that shook Alexander Hamilton's career in the 1790s, to the connection between the American and German eugenics movements and the perfection of radio propaganda by the Third Reich, to the Rock Against Racism movement in Britain, and even the origins of Rochester's revered dish, the Garbage Plate.

The CHRONOS Editorial Board would like to thank the Department of History and especially Prof. Norman Kutcher, Ms. Erin Borchik, and Ms. Faye Morse for their support of CHRONOS activities this year, as well as Sloane Sexton for designing the poster for this year's CHRONOS Conference. We are extremely proud of the submissions that we received, of the great success of our conference on OUR History, OUR Legacy: The Construction of Collective Identities, and of the increasing scope of the CHRONOS website (chronos.syr.edu).

Have you considered joining the CHRONOS Editorial Board? Some of our work includes selecting and editing historical papers, designing a publication journal, organizing an academic conference, and expanding the CHRONOS website. If you are interested, contact Prof. Albrecht Diem at adiem@maxwell.syr.edu or the Board at chronos@maxwell.syr.edu.

If you have a historical paper that received an A- (90%) or better grade and you want to transform it into an article in an academic journal, consider submitting it for our next issue. E-mail us at chronos@maxwell.syr.edu or submit it online on our website at chronos.syr.edu/submit.

If you have questions, comments, suggestions, send us an e-mail at chronos@maxwell.syr.edu.

We look forward to another exciting year for History at Syracuse University!

Sincerely,

The 2018 CHRONOS Editorial Board:
