UB's Transfer Students Needs

A special BI grew out of the UB IT Literacy Committee in 2004

What services could we provide to any special population?

Transfer Students

Transfer students coming to UB have many things to which they must immediately adjust.

One of them is effective and efficient navigation of the UB Libraries' services and collections

Improved Papers, Projects, and Reports: Better Performance with Library Research

Effective use of the UB Libraries can produce high-quality papers, reports, and projects. Library research is a skill transfer students must master quickly. A hurdle is the expectations for your abilities to use the resources of the University Libraries.

Explore the UB Information Tool Box and how to effectively use the Libraries Catalog to locate books, reference materials, and other resources in the UB libraries. This workshop provides instruction for finding journal articles, full-text resources, course reserves, library Websites, subject librarians, chat reference services, and more!

Navigating the Libraries Home Page

The screenshot shows the University at Buffalo Libraries website. At the top, there is a blue header with the logo and a search bar. Below the header is a navigation menu with tabs for Home, Libraries, Catalog, Resources, Services, and Help. The main content area is divided into three columns: Quick Links, Library Information, and BISON Catalog. The Quick Links column lists various resources like 'Best Basic Resources' and 'Databases by Title'. The Library Information column lists 'Hours / Floor Plans', 'Staff Directory', and 'Events & Workshops'. The BISON Catalog column features a search bar and links for 'Login Help', 'My Library Card', and 'Full Catalog'. Below these columns are two sections: 'New Books in the Libraries' with book covers and a description of the Book TV program, and 'Library News & Announcements' with a list of recent posts and a link to 'All Library News...'. At the bottom, there is contact information for the University at Buffalo Libraries and a list of library collections.

Library Research Tutorial

The screenshot displays the University at Buffalo Libraries website. At the top left is the logo for UB LIBRARIES, University at Buffalo, The State University of New York. To the right of the logo is a search bar with the text "How Do I...". Below the logo is a navigation menu with tabs for Home, Libraries, Catalog, Resources, Services, and Help. Underneath the navigation menu are links for Contact A Librarian, Library Alerts, and Research Tips. The main content area features a breadcrumb trail: Home > Help > Research Tips. The title "Research Tips" is prominently displayed in a large, orange font. Below the title is a paragraph explaining that the site is an online guide for performing research. A bulleted list follows, detailing how to locate books, full-text articles, and what to look for when using the web. A final paragraph notes that each page is a separate guide. At the bottom right of the main content area, there is a call to action: "Questions/Comments to Tiffany Walsh". The footer of the page includes links for CHAT, EMAIL, TELEPHONE, Site Search, Terms of Use, Privacy Policy, Accessibility, and Home.

Research Tips

The Research Tips site is an online guide designed to help you perform research in the University at Buffalo's University Libraries. This guide will help you understand basic research skills including:

- How to locate books and periodicals using BISON, the UB Libraries catalog
- How to locate full-text articles
- What to look for when using the Web for research
- How to cite books and articles.

While this guide is designed to take you through the entire research process, each page stands alone as a separate guide. If you need to familiarize yourself with one or more particular aspects of research, such as citation styles or evaluating resources, you can use the site index to go directly to that particular page.

- Work much more closely with Academic Services
  - Earlier announcements
  - More stimulating announcements
- Personal follow-up to those signing up
  - Need better lead-time
- New approaches to stimulate students' interests
