Dear subscribers - The following announcement is being shared with you at the request of the Director of the Slutzker Center for International Services. Thank you for taking the time to read it.

Travel seminars cancelled today and tomorrow – SCIS closed / Severe weather alert

* Travel seminar cancelled for today/tomorrow – Monday, Oct 29th and Tuesday, Oct 30th ****

* SCIS will be closed from 1:30pm today until 8:30am on Wednesday. ****

Due to the severe weather alert issued today for the Syracuse area and the recent SU announcement (see below), SCIS travel seminars have been cancelled for today and tomorrow (Monday – Oct 29th and Tuesday – Oct 30th). Our office will also be closed starting at 1:30pm today. We plan to re-open on Wednesday, Oct 31st at 8:30am.

Please check our website (<http://international.syr.edu>) on Wednesday – Oct 31st for updates about any other cancellations, should they be needed, or call us at (315) 443-2457.

* Severe weather alert issued for Syracuse – Watch SU News for updates! ****

At 10:35am today (Mon-Oct 29th), SU announced that all classes starting after 1:40pm today are cancelled. All classes held on Tuesday-Oct 30th are also cancelled. All SU faculty and staff (except those supporting residential students) are asked to leave campus at 1:30pm. For more details, please visit SU Breaking News at <http://news.syr.edu/category/breaking-news/>.

Hurricane Sandy has landed on the U.S. East Coast and will bring severe weather to the Syracuse area later today, including high winds that will bring tree branches and other debris onto roads and sidewalks and cause power outages. A severe weather alert has been issued for the Syracuse area until Tuesday, 5pm.

SU News will continue to send updates, as needed, through campus-wide e-mail and on the SU News – Breaking News webpage (<http://news.syr.edu/category/breaking-news/>). Please take care today and tomorrow, limit your time spent outdoors and make sure you have a flashlight, radio and basic supplies at home, in case you lose power.
