Remembrance Week 2012 marks 24th anniversary of Pan Am 103 bombing

Special video and coverage of the Remembrance Week 2012

From the Daily Orange: “The resonating toll of the bells from Crouse College’s tower cut through the silence of the crowd gathered at the newly renovated Place of Remembrance at precisely 2:03 pm. It was the exact time that Pan Am 103 exploded over Lockerbie, Scotland on Dec. 21, 1988. The explosion killed 270 people, including 35 students returning from Syracuse University’s study abroad programs and 11 Lockerbie residents killed on the ground. Ringing exactly 35 times for each of the students who fell victim to the horrific act of terrorism, the centerpiece event for SU’s Remembrance Week commenced. In two rows, 35 Syracuse University Remembrance Scholarship recipients, one for each victim of the bombing, carried single white roses and walked toward the crowd and the Wall of Remembrance. Each of the scholars represented a specific student and, prior to placing their rose on the wall, each said a few words about the person he or she represented.”

Daylight Saving Time! – Set your clocks back this weekend

It’s time to change the time!

Daylight Saving time in the United States is the practice of setting the clock forward by one hour in March and one hour backward in November, so that evenings have more daylight and mornings have less. We casually call this “Spring forward” and “Fall back”.

Most cell phones and computers that use WiFi or networks should change automatically. However, plug-in or battery clocks, microwaves and other non-networked devices should be manually adjusted on Saturday night/Sunday morning (ex.- if it is “11:00pm”, change to “10:00pm”).

So, when you go to bed this Saturday night, be sure to set your alarm clock one hour back and enjoy the extra sleep!
Attention Graduate Students!

Open Enrollment begins Oct 29th and ends Nov 9th

This is the one time each year when you may make changes to your benefit choices unless you undergo a change in family status during the year (ex. - marriage, divorce, birth or adoption of a child or other “qualifying life events”).

Please visit one of the remaining Open Enrollment Info Sessions. For details on changes that take effect 1/1/2013, visit http://openenrollment.syr.edu or the Graduate Assistants/Fellows Newsletter.

What’s New for 2013

• Preventive services, including generic women’s prescription contraceptives, are covered at no cost.
• A new 2-year commitment for the university’s dental and vision plans begins.
• The University’s comprehensive dental plan will cover implants, at the same rate it currently covers crowns, inlays and certain other dental work.
• In-network diabetic eyecare, contact lens benefits, and frame allowances through VSP Vision are being enhanced.
• Medco and Express Scripts are now one company, but the merger does not affect prescription drug benefits.

“Travel seminar” dates for the holiday season!

Travel seminars for F-1 and J-1 visa holders

With the Fall Break and Winter Holidays approaching, the Slutzker Center for International Services (SCIS) will be holding additional travel seminars.

From October 29th to November 16th – seminars will be held every business day at the times listed below, except Monday-Nov 5th and Tuesday-Nov 6th. No travel seminars will be held on those two days.

If you are planning any travel, please be sure to attend one of these seminars and ensure you are up-to-date on what you must prepare in advance. It will help make your trip as smooth as possible!

When – Mondays at 5pm, Tuesdays at 11am, Wednesdays at 1:30pm, Thursdays at 3pm and Fridays at 12pm

Where – Slutzker Center for International Services
310 Walnut Place (across the street from Bird Library)
Electronic Diversity Visa Lottery (Green Card Lottery) 2014 Announcement

The congressionally mandated Diversity Immigrant Visa Program is administered on an annual basis by the Department of State and conducted based on United States law, specifically Section 203(c) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA). This law provides for a class of immigrants known as “diversity immigrants,” with visas made available to persons from countries with historically low rates of immigration to the United States. For Fiscal Year 2014, 50,000 diversity visas (DV) will be available.

The annual DV program makes visas available to persons meeting simple, but strict, eligibility requirements. A computer-generated, random drawing chooses selectees for DVs. The visas are distributed among six geographic regions, and within each region, no single country may receive more than seven percent of the available DVs in any one year. Visas are allocated to natives of countries with historically lower rates of U.S. immigration. Natives of countries who have sent more than 50,000 immigrants to the United States over the past five years are not eligible to apply for the Diversity Visa program.

DV 2014 Program-Online Registration

Online registration for the DV-2014 Program started on Tuesday, October 2, 2012 at 12:00 noon, Eastern Daylight Time (EDT) (GMT-4), and concludes on Saturday, November 3, 2012 at 12:00 noon, Eastern Daylight Time (EDT) (GMT-4). After the entry period opens October 2, the U.S. Department of State recommends early entry, and encourages applicants not to wait until the last week of the registration period to enter.

For DV-2014, natives of the following countries are not eligible to apply because the countries sent a total of more than 50,000 immigrants to the United States in the previous five years: BANGLADESH, BRAZIL, CANADA, CHINA (mainland-born), COLOMBIA, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC, ECUADOR, EL SALVADOR, HAITI, INDIA, JAMAICA, MEXICO, PAKISTAN, PERU, PHILIPPINES, SOUTH KOREA, UNITED KINGDOM (except Northern Ireland) and its dependent territories, and VIETNAM.

Persons born in Hong Kong SAR, Macau SAR, and Taiwan are eligible.

Changes in eligibility this year: FOR DV-2014, NATIVES OF GUATEMALA ARE NOW ELIGIBLE FOR SELECTION

Please find the detailed instructions for applying here.

Instructions in other languages can be looked up here.

Please find more information on the Diversity Visa Program here.
International Education Week 2012 - Artist Lecture: “I Miss You Already” with Shen Wei

LIGHT WORK / COMMUNITY DARKROOMS presents Shen Wei — “I Miss You Already”

When: Wednesday - Nov 7th at 5pm to 7pm (includes gallery reception)

Where: Watson Theater, 316 Waverly Avenue

Chinese artist Shen Wei will discuss his progression as an artist in general, with a special focus on the cultural aspects of his Chinese Sentiment project and his push against changing cultural taboos in his newer “I Miss You Already” self-portraits. Chinese Sentiment describes subtle changes on a human level of individuals, often seen in the privacy of their home.

A selection of photographs from the “I Miss You Already” project will be on display in the Kay O. Ellis Gallery at Light Work. Catalogues from this exhibition will be available for free at the lecture.

International Education Week 2012

The Slutzker Center will lead the 2012 International Education Week events at SU and in the Syracuse community from November 12th to 16th. International Education Week events are driven by students and we are seeking students of all levels, American and international, to become part of the planning or to play an active role performing.

Two events are being organized:

- Music Beyond Borders: An International Music Festival
- An Orange Dialogue for Peace and Study Abroad dinner

Students who are musicians, Master of Ceremonies, performers, technicians, publicity designers or have other talents to offer are welcome. We are looking to the SU students to shape our message and the events for 2012. Please contact Elane Granger Carrasco at elcarras@syr.edu if you want to be part of this exciting celebration of ourselves as international people under the same sky.

International Education Week is an opportunity to celebrate the benefits of international education and exchange worldwide. This joint initiative of the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Department of Education is part of our efforts to promote programs that prepare students for a global environment and attract future leaders from abroad to study, learn, and exchange experiences in the United States.
New York Governor Andrew M. Cuomo has proclaimed Nov. 12-16, 2012 International Education Week in New York State. This proclamation comes at the request and advocacy efforts of a number of institutions and entities.

More information about International Education Week and other events across the country are available at the official International Education Week website.

Effective Communication Across Cultures – Additional workshop scheduled

Communication is essential for our success. This is particularly important when communication conventions differ across cultures. Being unaware of the communications practices in the U.S. can lead to misunderstandings, mistakes and general ineffectiveness in our communication when interacting with other cultures.

In this session you will learn:

- Differences in communication across culture
- The difficulties that you are likely to encounter with communicating with people from other countries
- The importance of effective communication for social, academic and professional success.
- The importance of expressions and body language when communicating with other cultures.

Friday – Nov. 2nd from 2pm to 5pm

“Musical of Musicals” premier at Jazz Central Theatre

Musical of Musicals (The Musical!) is a musical by Joanne Bogart and Eric Rockwell. The show premiered off-Broadway in 2003 at the York Theatre. Silly, smart, juicy, merciless - just a few of the one-word adjectives used to describe this 5-act romp that lovingly parodies the musicals of Rogers & Hammerstein, Andrew Lloyd Webber, Stephen Sondheim, Jerry Herman, and Kander & Ebb.

For tickets: Click here or call the box office at 315-546-3224
Cost: $20
When: Friday, Nov 2nd – 8pm to 10pm and Saturday, Nov 3rd – 8pm to 10pm
Location: CNY Jazz Arts Foundation – 441 East Washington Street; Syracuse, NY 13202
