Syracuse Scholar invites submissions from present or past members of the Syracuse University faculty, alumni of the graduate schools, and distinguished visitors to the campus. The editors are interested in essays on matters of scholarly or public interest, scientific articles, discussions of controversial issues, poetry and short fiction. Artists are invited to submit original work.

The Chicago Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press) and Strunk and White, Elements of Style (Macmillan) should be consulted as guides to the presentation of written material.

Art submissions (including photography) should be unpublished work intended for the print medium. Whenever possible, reproduction will be made directly from the original art.

Queries and submissions should be addressed to the Editor, Syracuse Scholar, Syracuse University, 220 Sims 3, Syracuse, New York 13210.
