Facing page: The future development of the design and engineering of tall buildings was the focus of the School of Architecture symposium "afterSHAFT: Reprogramming the High Rise Biology of the Vertical Plant." Held at The Warehouse, Syracuse University's academic facility in downtown Syracuse, the event was funded by the Syracuse Center of Excellence in Environmental and Energy Systems and the U.S. Department of Energy.

Below, top left and bottom: The women's lacrosse squad won the inaugural BIG EAST Tournament held in the Carrier Dome April 27 and 29. The Orange defeated Rutgers, 13-7, in the semifinals before beating Georgetown, 12-7, in the championship game. Goalie Amber Pardee-Hill '10 recorded 24 saves in the two games and was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player. Syracuse earned an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament, where it defeated Vanderbilt, 16-10, before losing to eventual national champion Northwestern, 14-9.

Below, top right: Since 1959, the SU campus in Florence, Italy, has been an integral part of the community. To honor the University, a bus stop at Piazza Savonarola, home to Syracuse University Florence (SUF), was renamed Syracuse University. SUF is the only American university in Florence to be honored with a named stop on the city's public transportation system.
