

attain

Facing page: Former astronaut Eileen Collins '78, H'01 presented a $10,000 scholarship from the Astronaut Scholarship Foundation (ASF) to Rebecca Rought '08, a senior aerospace engineering major in SU's L.C. Smith College of Engineering and Computer Science. The prestigious award is one of 19 made available each year through the ASF. The scholarships are awarded to college students who have exhibited exceptional performance initiative and creativity in science or engineering. Following the award presentation, Collins, the first woman to command the space shuttle, gave a free public lecture.

Below, top: Eight new members of the Syracuse University Board of Trustees were inducted in a ceremony held in Crouse College's Rose and Jules R. Setnor Auditorium. Those inducted by presiding chair-elect John H. Chapple '75 were: Walter J. Bobkiewicz III G'89, Robert E. Dineen Jr. L'66, James D. Kuhn '70, G'72, Arthur S. Liu G'66, Theodore A. McKee L'75, Judith C. Mower '66, G'73, G'80, G'84, Howard G. Phanstiel '70, G'71, and Thomas C. Wilmot '70. Ryan A. Kelly '08 and Joseph D. Wieder '08, student representatives to the Board of Trustees, were also recognized during the ceremony.

Below, bottom: The SU Orange football team went from underdogs to victors in an exhilarating 38-35 win against the Louisville Cardinals, ranked 18th in the nation.

