

SYRACUSE

U MAGAZINE

No. 1!

INSIDE:
Championship Journey
The Student-Athlete Experience

Chancellor's message

Steve Sartori

Chancellor Kenneth A. Shaw speaks to the media during a press conference at which he announced his retirement.

In the immediate future, I plan to be intensely involved in the workings of the institution. I will focus on the Academic Plan, space planning, and fund raising—the keys to the University's future. There is much to be done.

Then I will take a leave of absence for the 2004-05 academic year and return to teach and to assume other duties as assigned by the new Chancellor and the Board of Trustees. Mary Ann and I are devoted to the Central New York area and are happy to call it home.

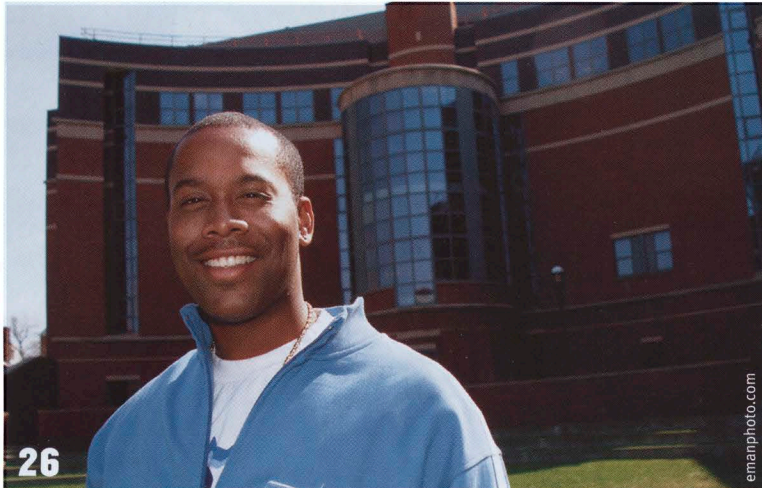

I am deeply grateful to the thousands of people, including many readers of this magazine, who have helped make my term as Chancellor such a rewarding one. Their counsel, encouragement, expertise, camaraderie, and willingness to share have made the difference not only for me, but for this University.

Kenneth A. Shaw
Chancellor and President

table of Contents

SYRACUSE

Summer 2003, Volume 20, Number 2

FEATURES

26 Generation 1

SU has a proud tradition of welcoming and supporting students who are the first in their families to attend college.

32 Cross Training

Student-athletes endure rigorous schedules as they seek to excel in the classroom and in their sports.

38 Inspirational Retreat

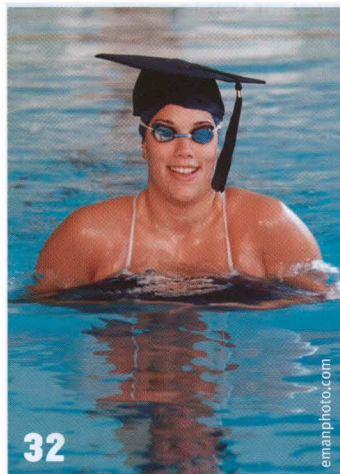

The Minnowbrook Adirondack Conference Center celebrates 50 years of creative conferencing in rustic elegance.

40 Sharpening Young Minds

Project Advance is a national model for cooperative education between high schools and colleges.

44 Designing the Future

The proposed Center for Design Innovation focuses on interdisciplinary collaboration.

THE COVER:

SU basketball players Hakim Warrick '05, Carmelo Anthony '06, and Gerry McNamara '06 congratulate each other after winning the NCAA championship.

Photo by Stephen D. Cannerelli,
The Post-Standard

DEPARTMENTS

- 2 Opening Remarks
- 3 In Basket
- 4 Quad Angles
- 6 Advancing the Vision
- 8 University Place
- 18 SU People
- 24 Perspectives
- 46 Alumni Journal
- 64 View from the Hill

INSIDE:
CHAMPIONSHIP JOURNEY

SUMMER 2003 1