

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY MAGAZINE

UNIVERSITY MAGAZINE

FALL 2008 | VOL 25 | NO 3

CHOOSING SU

from across the country
 around the world
 highly qualified & creative diverse accomplishments energetic collaborative enterprising bold courageous

CONTENTS

FALL 2008 VOL. NO. 3
25

FEATURES

18 Cold Case Justice

Through the College of Law's Cold Case Justice Initiative, two professors and their students investigate racially motivated unsolved murders from the civil rights era.

24 Appealing Prospects

As the quality and diversity of SU students reach new thresholds, the University works to continue ensuring access and financial support.

28 An Uncommon Campaign

No matter who wins on Election Day, the 2008 presidential campaign has given voters more than the usual political fare.

34 Rewarding Research

The National Science Foundation recognizes and supports the work of six young faculty members who show extraordinary promise in advancing their fields.

42 The Legend of Ernie Davis

The heroic story of Orange football great Ernie Davis '62, the first African American to win the coveted Heisman Trophy, becomes a major motion picture that's sure to capture the heart of a national audience.

ON THE COVER:

Today's SU student body represents one of the brightest, most diverse, and most engaged in the University's history. To find out why more students than ever are "Choosing SU," turn to "Appealing Prospects" on page 24.

DEPARTMENTS

- 2 Chancellor's Message
- 3 Opening Remarks
- 4 University Place
- 12 SU People
- 46 Alumni Journal
- 64 The View

Photo Courtesy of Universal Pictures