

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY MAGAZINE

820 Comstock Avenue, Room 308
Syracuse, NY 13244-5040

et al.: Back Matter

Not only was Orange Central an exciting new celebration of Homecoming+Reunion, it was also a rousing showcase of personal and professional achievement. Starting with the Arents Awards and followed closely by the inaugural Orange Circle Awards, the Orange Central spotlight shone bright on SU alumni, students, and friends who are truly making a difference in the world.

We tip our hats with pride to this tremendous cast, who represent the best of Syracuse University!

To learn more about the 2009 Arents and Orange Circle Award recipients, visit orangecentral.syr.edu.

The George Arents Award honors alumni who have reached the pinnacle of their respective fields.

Karen L. DeCrow L'72
Excellence in Advocacy of Civil Liberties and Women's Rights

Samuel V. Goekjian '52
Excellence in International Business and Law

Frank A. Langella '59
Excellence in Performing Arts

Donald G. McPherson '87
Excellence in Social Activism

Joyce Carol Oates '60, H'00
Excellence in Letters

The Orange Circle Award recognizes the visionary commitment of those who give their time, talent, and resources to serve others.

John A. '63 and Elaine C. Couri
Bettering life experiences for the youth and elderly

Samina S. Noorani '09
Emma S. Dovi '09
Reigniting an honored senior class tradition

Wesley C. Dias '74
Problem solver, guide, and mentor to high school youth

Jules R. Setnor, M.D. '32, G'35
A tireless commitment to educating future generations

Syracuse University Sport Management Club
A solid game plan to better the Syracuse community

Marilyn Costello Tickner '03
Unflinching volunteerism for SU

Alumni
RELATIONS
SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY
800.SUALUMS