

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY MAGAZINE

SPRING 2012 | VOL 29 | NO 1

STAGE PRESENCE

SPRING 2012 VOL No 1
29

22

40

FEATURES

22 | Cultural Exchange

In partnership with Syracuse's Somali Bantu community, an SU folk arts initiative seeks to preserve the culture's traditions and provide opportunities for learning and understanding for participating students and Bantu.

28 | Stage Presence

Syracuse Stage and the Department of Drama are working together to build a vibrant and creative community of artists.

36 | Making the Most of Monday

Through social media savvy and community outreach, the Lerner Center for Public Health Promotion helps us take better care of ourselves.

40 | Start-Up Fever

Five years after the University launched a major initiative to expand entrepreneurship on campus, innovative student ventures are surging forward.

28

ON THE COVER:

Syracuse Stage and the SU Department of Drama combine their talents and resources to mount such co-productions as The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe.

DEPARTMENTS

- 2 Chancellor's Message
- 3 Opening Remarks
- 4 Orange Matters
 - » Deep Sea Exploration » University Treasures
 - » Information Technology » Q & A: Professor William Banks
 - » The Canary Project » SU Social Media Team
 - » Newsmakers » Research Snapshot
 - » Student Philanthropy Council
- 16 SU People
- 46 Alumni Journal

