

Summer at SU

John A. Williams: An Exhibition—
May 15-August 31

A display of artifacts and memorabilia chronicling the career of one of America's pre-eminent contemporary authors. On loan from the John A. Williams Archive at the University of Rochester. George Arents Research Library.

Strawberry Festival—June 17

Lunch on the Quad featuring fresh strawberry sundaes and a Fun Run.

SU Golf Classic—June 20

Golf tourney to benefit the SU Outstanding Teacher Award. For info call the Alumni Programs Office, (315) 423-3514.

Maxfield Parrish Lecture—June 22

Dr. Coy Ludwig G'73, director of the Tyler Art Gallery at SUNY Oswego, lectures on one of early 20th-century America's leading illustrators. Bird Library, 7:30 p.m.

Alumni University—July 10-15

A learning vacation for SU alumni, friends, and neighbors, on the subject of "Leadership in a Changing America." For registration information, call the Alumni Programs Office, (315) 423-3514.

Maxwell Summer Lecture Series—mid-July, dates TBA

Lectures by eminent scholars on the 1988 Presidential Campaign. Contact the Maxwell School at (315) 423-2252.

Ice Cream Social—July 15

An old-fashioned summer's day pastime. Hot dogs, lemonade, and ice cream on the quad, with entertainment by the All-Star Band.

Empire State Games—August 3-7

Over 7,000 amateur athletes from New York State participate in 22 sports—the world's largest amateur athletic competition.