

In 2006, a group of like-minded student musicians formed Ra Ra Riot, playing house parties and venues in Syracuse before taking their talents on the road. In March, amid a coast-to-coast North American tour in support of their first full-length album, The Rhumb Line, the band (from left to right)—Rebecca Zeller '07 (violin), Milo Bonacci '06 (guitar), Alexandra Lawn '08 (cello), Wesley Miles '06 (keyboard, vocals), and Mathieu Santos '07 (bass)—returned to Syracuse for a date at the Westcott Theater.
