Vita

Bruce Abbey was born in 1943 in Vermont. He attended public schools in Burlington and the Liceo Ginnasio Statale "Giuglio Cesare" in Rome, Italy. He received his B. Arch. from Cornell in 1966 and M. Arch. from Princeton in 1971. Between 1966 and 1969 he served in the Peace Corps in Tunisia, working for the Bureau of Public Works and the National Institute of Archaeology. Professional experience includes work in the Office of Dan Kiley, Michael Graves and Geddes Brecher Qualls Cunningham. In 1974 he started teaching at the University of Virginia where he was department chair and associate dean. He also maintained a professional practice in Charlottesville. From 1990 to 2002 he was dean of the School of Architecture at Syracuse University.
